New World Resources Company Overview

The New World Resources group, through its subsidiary OKD, is a leading producer of hard coal in Central Europe and the largest in the Czech Republic (on the basis of revenues and volume of coal produced) serving customers in the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Austria, Poland, Hungary and Germany. The Company has five mining business units which together with related businesses, operate in the north-eastern region of the Czech Republic that borders Poland. The NWR group is one of the largest industrial groups in the Czech Republic in terms of revenues and employees. OKD's major customers include Arcelor Mittal Steel, U.S. Steel, Voestalpine Stahl, Dalkia ČR, Moravia Steel and ČEZ.

The Company, through its wholly-owned coke producing subsidiary, OKK, owns two coking facilities that operate five coking batteries located near its mining operations.

As of 1 January 2008, the Company had approximately 419 million tonnes of JORC proven and probable reserves. More than half of the Company's coal reserves consist of high quality coal that can be sold as coking coal. In 2007, the Company sold approximately 13.1 million tonnes of coal, of which approximately 7.8 million tonnes was coking coal, and produced approximately 1.3 million tonnes of coke.
